MLK Book Donations

There will be a Martin Luther King Service Project to benefit 826 Boston, a literacy & writing charity which works gratis with under-served Boston Public Schools students. They publish and sell books of their students' writing.

It's not too late to donate online! We still need some requested books.

Visit myregistry.com and search for "826 Boston".

A book donation box will also be at the MLK Observance on Monday.
